Unknown Suspect
St. Louis, Missouri
February 6, 2024

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of this unknown suspect.

REMARKS

The unknown suspect is described as a Black male, between 20 to 40 years old, 5'5" to 5'10", and 140 to 160 pounds.

DETAILS

The Federal Bureau of Investigation's St. Louis Field Office is seeking the public's assistance in identifying an individual who physically attacked a White male victim waiting at a bus stop. The assault occurred on February 6, 2024, at approximately 3:30 p.m. to 3:45 p.m., at the bus stop located at Delmar Boulevard and North Sarah Street on the northern edge of Central West End in St. Louis, Missouri.

There were other people waiting at the bus stop, however, the victim was the only White person. Just prior to the attack, the unknown suspect was heard saying "I hate White people" and that he was going to "hurt this guy." The unknown suspect struck the victim in the face with a concrete brick knocking the victim unconscious.

If you have any information concerning this person, please contact your local FBI office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.
